“Cause sh*t happens.”
Janna Wett

“I need a washroom that accommodates me and my caregiver.”
Dina Acquaviva

“Many downtowns have public toilets within a 250-meter radius. Why not Winnipeg?”
Jason Syvixay

“Do I have to use the parking lot again?”
Stephen Wilson

“Our close friends have varying abilities, so finding an accessible public washroom is always on our minds.”
Krista Mathewson and Sarah Bond

“What do I do... when there’s no washroom at the ice cream place?”
Stephanie Parker

“It’s a health issue. It’s a human rights and dignity issue. It’s a women’s issue.”
Emily Bishop

“Like over 100,000 Canadians, I have Colitis. I need public toilets here and now.”
Kirsten Michel

“My mom says great cities have great public toilets.”
Nyree Bridgman

“We need convenient, clean and well-maintained public toilets for a broad range of community needs.”
Jenny Gerbasi

“As a local enthusiast, I am often asked by visitors ‘Where is the closest washroom?’”
Natalie Del

“We need to find ways to support our relatives who may be living on the street.”
Michael Orsagno

Photography by Adam Kelly

Learn more about this Pop-up Public Toilet Initiative at downtownwinnipegbiz.com

#popupwinnipeg
#toiletlesswpg

My Winnipeg includes Public Toilets

jasonsyvixay.com
bridgman.collaborative
ARCHITECTURE