Economic Development Director, St. Johns County, FL (estimated population: 306,841)

Welcome to St. Johns County, a coastal paradise abounding in lush greenery, beautiful beaches, a booming economy, a deeply rich history, and a family-friendly environment. The area has rightly received much praise and recognition nationally and internationally. The County is located in northeastern Florida, just 35 miles south of Jacksonville and 74 miles east of Gainesville. Niche.com ranked St. Johns County #4 out of 67 for Best Counties to Live in Florida and #55 of 2,768 for Best Counties to Live in America (2023). Teeming with Florida sunshine, outdoor activities, family events, and kindhearted neighbors, it's a place that many love to call home.

The County is looking for a dynamic, energetic individual with a passion for economic development. It is interested in candidates who are proactive and achievement oriented, who build relationships and teams and who will roll up their sleeves to get things done.

The ideal candidate will have a demonstrated track record of accomplishment and experience with all aspects of economic development. She/he will have a bachelor's degree in economic development, economics or a related field. Priority will be given to those who have a master's degree in a similar field. The individual will have at least five to ten years of experience in economic development. Experience in the public sector is important but not mandatory. The County is looking for the right leader and partner with the right skill set wherever that person may be.

The salary range is $100,000 to $151,000. The salary will depend on qualifications and experience. Benefits are excellent. To apply, please e-mail your cover letter and resume to Recruit24@cb-asso.com by May 3rd. Please apply ASAP, as resumes will be screened as they arrive. Faxed and mailed resumes will not be considered. Questions should be directed to Scott Krim at (801) 628-8364 or Ron Williams at (305) 388-8990.
